EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT DELEGATION TO MEET WITH U.S. ADMINISTRATION AND CONGRESS

A European Parliament delegation will visit Washington and Hot Springs, Virginia from September 20-25 to meet with members of the U.S. Administration and the U.S. Congress.

During the first three days, the parliamentarians will see Donald T. Regan, Secretary of the Treasury, John R. Block, Secretary of Agriculture and Malcolm Baldrige, Secretary of Commerce, as well as Lawrence S. Eagleburger, Under Secretary for Political Affairs, Department of State and Michael B. Smith, Deputy U.S. Trade Representative. They will have a special meeting with Thomas P. O'Neill, Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives.

The meetings in Hot Springs with a delegation from the U.S. Congress will include three plenary sessions. The following economic topics will be discussed: trade protectionism, US-EC agricultural problems, world economic recovery, North-South relations and international monetary affairs. Specific political issues which will be raised are: East-West relations, the status of the European Security Cooperation Conference (CSCE) and peace in the Middle East and Central America.

The twenty-four member delegation is led by Mr. Erwin Lange, a Social Democrat and former member of the German Bundestag. It includes eight Socialists, six members of the European People's Party, two Liberals, four European Democrats, three Communists and one Progressive Democrat. These numbers reflect the balance of the political groups in the Parliament.

Five members are from the United Kingdom, four each from Italy, France and Germany, two from Greece and the Netherlands, and one each from Belgium, Ireland and Luxembourg. One Community country, Denmark, is not represented.

The delegation includes the chairmen of six parliamentary committees: Mr. Heinrich Aigner, Chairman of the Committee on Budgetary Control, Sir Fred Catherwood, Chairman of the Committee on External Economic Relations, Mr. Erwin Lange, Chairman of the Budget Committee, Mr. Jacques Moreau, Chairman of the Economic and Monetary Affairs Committee, Mr. Efstratios Papaefstratiou, Chairman of the Social Affairs and Employment Committee, and Mrs. Simone Veil, the former President of the European Parliament, who now chairs the Legal Affairs Committee.

Delegations from the European Parliament and the U.S. Congress have met twice a year since 1972 to discuss a wide range of political and economic issues. The U.S. organizers of next week's meeting are Representative Tom Lantos (D-Ca), the Chairman of the U.S. Congressional Delegation and his two co-chairmen, Representative Sam M. Gibbons (D-Fl) and Representative Larry Winn Jr. (R-Ks).

To arrange interviews with members of the delegation, please call Ella Krucoff, Head of Media on 862-9540.
